

I am writing to complain about Sinclair Broadcasting.

Sinclair Broadcasting has ordered all their stations to show "Stolen Honor", an anti-Kerry documentary, before the election next month. This situation illustrates the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This one sided attack on Senator Kerry does not serve the public interest. It is not balanced, and much if it is not true. At the very least, this piece should be balanced with a critical review of the Bush administration.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
